INDEX

Volume XXII, 1955

Subjects and Titles

Addresses: Convocation, 236; Inaugural, 36, 254; President's, 3, 223
Alumni Societies: (Activities of), 136
American Association Advancement of Science: 109
American College of Dentists: Minutes of Board of Regents, Nov. 6-8, 1954, Miami; Feb. 6, 1955, Chicago; Oct. 15-17, 1955, San Francisco. Minutes of Convocation, Nov. 7, 1954, Miami; Oct. 16, 1955, San Francisco. Committee Reports: Education, 57; Preventive Service, 59; Prosthetic Dental Service, 124; Necrology, 62; Survey Committee, 204; Tri-Section Report, 273
Auxiliary Services: 101, 284
Book Reviews: 142, 311
Committees: Standing, 1954-55, 82, 156, 218; 1955-56, 312
California and Some Rugged Individualists: 245
Current Trends: 151
Dental Historian: 151
Dental Literature: The Record of Professional Progress, 294
Dental Research: 21
Dental Study Clubs: 118
Dentistry Peers Thru a Window: 87
Dentist's Opportunity for Continuing Education: 288
Early Charleston Dentistry: 174
Early Florida Dentistry: 166
Earmark of a Profession: 264
Editorial: Development and Responsibilities of Leadership, 116
Forsyth Affiliation: 144
Foundation for Dental Education and Research: 279
Greetings from Norway: 258
Harvard: (Forsyth Affiliation): 144
History: Historical Sketch of Am. Society of Dental Surgeons, 186; Italian Historians, 161
Moving Our Frontiers Forward: 269
Need and Opportunities for Teachers in Dentistry: 276
Pioneer Oral Surgeons in America: 155
Planning a Sounder Foundation (for Dental Education and Research): 279
Prevention—The Earmark of a Profession: 264
Professional Progress: 294
Professional Relations (Up One Side), 13, 30
Professional Responsibilities (and the Public): 260
Reports of Committees: Education, 57; Preventive Service, 59; Prosthetic Dental Service, 124; Necrology, 62; Survey, 204; Tri-State Section, 273
Sections: Directory, 83, 147, 219, 313
Study of Dentistry (Motivation for): 292
Ways and Means of: Finding Financial Support for Dental Education, 122; Supporting Dental Education, 105
Why Not a School of the Basic Dental Sciences? 298

Authors

Bain, Herbert B.: Public Relations, 30
Bernier, Joseph L.: Management of Oral Disease, 311
Boucher, Carl O.: Dental Literature: The Record of Professional Progress, 294
Casotti, Luigi: Vincenzo Guerini—Dean of Italian Historians, 161

Dalton, Van B.: An Historical Sketch of the American Society of Dental Surgeons, 186
Driscoll, C. D.: Early Florida Dentistry, 166
English, J. A.: Dental Research—Current and Future, 21
Ferguson, James H., Jr.: Inaugural Address, 36; President's Message, 223
Fleming, William C.: Professional Relations: Up One Side, 13
Gard, Knut: Greetings from Norway, 258
Grossman, Louis I.: Activities of the Dental Alumni Societies, 136
Gurley, John E.: Report of the Survey Comm., Including Comments on Teaching Dental History, 204
Hampp, E. G.: Dental Research—Current and Future, 21
Lyons, Harry: Dentistry Peers Thru a Window, 87
Macaulay, Neill W.: Early Charleston Dentistry, 174
Main, Lee Roy: The Dentist's Opportunity for Continuing Educational Advantages, 288
Markley, Miles R.: Dental Study Clubs and Their Function, 118
McCarthy, William D.: Use of Auxiliary Personnel in Dentistry, 101; The Auxiliary Services—How Helpful Can They Be? 284
Maslansky, Manual M.: Pioneer Oral Surgeons in America, 155
Paffenbarger, George C.: The American Association for Advancement of Science, 109; Dental Research—Current and Future, 21
Pierson, Fritz A.: Our Professional Responsibilities and the Public, 260
Pruden, Kenneth C.: Inaugural Address, 254
Ritchey, Beryl: Ways and Means of Finding Financial Support for Dental Education, 122
Schwartz, L. Lazzlo: Dental Historian and Current Trends in Dental Practice, 151
Sebelius, Carl L.: Prevention—The Earmark of a Profession, 264
Sproul, Robert Gordon: Convocation Address, 236
Swanson, Edgar W.: Planning a Sounder Foundation for Dental Education and Research, 279
Swanson, Henry A.: Moving Our Frontiers Forward, 269
Swanson, W. F.: The Need and Opportunities for Teachers in Dentistry, 276
Thomson, Harry S.: Presidential Address, 3
Volker, J. F.: Why Not a School of the Basic Dental Sciences? 298
Wylie, Wendell L.: California and Some Rugged Individualists, 245; Motivation for the Study of Dentistry, 292